MORE SKYROCKETS TO FLARE TONIGHT

Marin Has Safe, Noisy Holiday So Far With Traditional Parades, Games

Explosive brilliance flashed across the hills last night to the boom, boom, boom of rockets as Marin got a thrilling bang out of Independence Day.

The fuse was still sputtering today, but so far it appears to have been a safe celebration.

Only organized and legal display of fireworks in Marin today will begin at 9:15 p.m. on the sandspit near Vina Del Mar Plaza, Sausalito. This is a $1,000 display financed by the City of Sausalito.

The burst of rockets lit the skies over San Geronimo Valley, Mill Valley and Peacock Gap last night as two day-long Fourth of July programs came to a climax.

The Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission staged its 14th and final fireworks display from the grounds of Neil Cummins School. The commission, being dissolved Wednesday, made its last program a brilliant one.

The San Geronimo events, which included a dance, baseball game and barbecue, saw Linda Brown, brunette daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brown of Woodacre crowned Independence Day queen. She was selected over four other contestants.

A two-day celebration in Mill Valley, marking grand opening of the Mill Valley Youth and Community Center, came to a conclusion last night with fireworks over the small craft harbor site.

Bolinas's annual costume parade from the Coast Guard Station to the beach began at 11 a.m. today. Races and tug of war followed.

Other communities marked the Fourth in various ways yesterday.

In Inverness, it was two hours of foot races in front of the firehouse.

In Marinwood, it was a pancake breakfast for 3½ hours in the morning and a bicycle parade and watermelon feed in the afternoon, all sponsored by the Marinwood Fire Department.

Novatons had a bean feed at Stafford Lake, sponsored by the Novato Lions Club. At noon, the bells at city hall and atop Mission Realty in Novato rang for one minute, following a custom suggested by the late President John F. Kennedy.

Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club sponsored a barbecue and band concert yesterday afternoon.

Firecrackers Start Two Grass Fires

Two grass fires were started during the weekend by firecrackers, which are banned in Marin County.

Several other grass and brush fires of undetermined causes throughout the county may also have been caused by firecrackers.

One thousand square feet of grass and brush were burned at the intersection of Muir Woods and Panoramic Highway by 14 and 15-year-old boys who started celebrating Independence Day Saturday. The boys were apprehended later by a ranger at Muir Woods National Monument, according to the Marin County Fire Department.

A small grass fire at the rear of Larkspur-Corte Madera School in Larkspur was reportedly caused by children playing with firecrackers. A 20-square-foot area was blackened before the fire was extinguished.

Another Victim Found In Mexico

EL ROSARIO, Mex. (AP) — Fishermen have found the body of 13-year-old Lance Winter—one of eight apparent victims of two recent shipwrecks off the Baja California coast.

The body of the Murrieta, Calif., teenager was discovered washed up on the beach Saturday 275 miles south of the U.S.-Mexico border.

Nine persons were aboard two pleasure boats. One carried the Warren Winter family and aboard the other craft was the Hugh V. Wynn family of Visalia, Calif.

The lone known survivor is Denise Winter, 15.

Ex-Ike Aide Selected For World Bank Post

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson announced today he will nominate Livingston T. Merchant, an undersecretary of state in the Eisenhower administration, to be U.S. executive director at the World Bank.

Merchant, 61, would succeed John C. Bullitt of Princeton, N.J.

Skunk Detail Results In Unhappiness

Sheriff's deputy George Moreno headed his report "skunk detail" and went on to describe his duties when he was called to Hilarita Housing in Tiburon at 8 a.m. yesterday.

There was a skunk in a garbage can, residents said.

"The said garbage can, with skunk, was approached, and with the direction of local audience which had gathered, I managed to overturn the garbage can, skunk and all," Moreno wrote in his report.

"With this the skunk managed to get free, fleeing (with tail set for action) towards . . . the local audience, which resulted in a slight chaos (discomfort) on the part of the unhappy audience."

Flag Stolen —No Charges

An American flag, stolen from a parking meter on Fifth Avenue near San Rafael City Hall yesterday was retrieved a short time later from a man who explained:

"I promised my wife a flag." No charge was filed against Clinton Remus Riner III of 219 Adobestone Court, Marinwood, after he was stopped by a San Rafael policeman on Lucas Valley Road.

The officer saw the flag's pole sticking out of Riner's jeep.

Ronald A. Gonsalves of 43 Corte Pacheco, San Rafael, vice president of the San Rafael Junior Chamber of Commerce, reported the theft. He told police he did not wish to press charges.

Marin Teacher Dies In Crash

Traffic Gore Sure To Set New Marks

COMBINED UPI & AP

Americans got a calendar bonus today to extend their Fourth of July celebration another day. But the traffic toll hit 400 and safety experts said a new record was "unavoidable."

The National Safety Council said the three-day Independence Day holiday period record of 510 surely would fall as millions of motorists headed for home. Safety Council spokesmen said the Fourth of July toll was almost 50 deaths ahead of the Memorial Day—thus keeping the same 15 per cent figure it had all weekend.

A United Press International count at 12 noon EDT showed 433 persons had been killed in traffic accidents since the holiday's start at 6 p.m. Friday.

The breakdown:

Traffic	433
Drownings	98
Fireworks	2
Planes	4
Miscellaneous	52
Total	589

New York had 31 traffic deaths to lead the nation, followed by Ohio 31, California 29, Texas 26 and Missouri 20.

Only Alaska, Delaware, Nevada and Vermont had no accidental deaths of any kind.

The tabulation began at 6 p.m. local time Friday and will continue through midnight tonight. The biggest Fourth of July carnage count was 556 during a four-day weekend in 1963.

It was possible the weekend toll would pass Labor Day weekend, 1963, when 561 were killed in traffic wrecks, history's highest total for a summer holiday period.

In a single accident in Colorado, seven persons died. A crash in Oklahoma took six lives. Others in New York cost five; South Carolina four, and Ohio three.

Millions of motorists headed home as the three-day holiday drew to a close. The weather

Other Driver Is Dead

A Mill Valley school teacher was killed last night in a head-on auto crash south of Grass Valley which also took the life of the other driver.

Killed were Mrs. Lenore B. Irish, 36, of 61 Woodside Lane, Mill Valley, and Carla K. Ullman, 18, of Durham, Butte County.

Grass Valley police said the car driven by Miss Ullman veered into the path of Mrs. Irish's car on Highway 49, according to the Associated Press.

LEG FRACTURE

Delores A. Prescott, 35, of Berkeley, a passenger with Mrs. Irish, was hospitalized at Sierra Nevada Memorial Hospital in Grass Valley with a leg fracture.

Jacqueline L. Trimm, 17, of Durham, a passenger with Miss Ullman, was reported in serious condition in the same hospital.

Mrs. Irish taught orchestra and instrumental music at Edna Maguire School in Mill Valley the past two years. Previously she taught nine years in Oakland schools.

ILLINOIS NATIVE

She was born in Illinois, graduated from University of Michigan, and received a master's degree in music from College of Holy Name in Oakland.

She was the daughter of Walter Brooks of Berkeley.

Her husband was Robert V. Irish. They had no children.

Art, Garden Gate Ahead Of Last Year

Bright skies and a warm sun brought crowds to the Marin Art and Garden Fair in Ross over the weekend to observe Independence Day in the old fashioned manner.

Today and midnight will be the last chance to attend the fair which follows the theme, "Summertime 1900." (See photo, flower winners, page 16.)

Despite the old-fashioned theme, crowds turned out in present-day numbers, giving a paid gate far ahead of last year.

There were 7,326 tickets sold Saturday and 8,951 sold yesterday for a total weekend paid attendance of 16,277. Total July 3 and 4 attendance last year was 14,138.

The fair includes art, photo, landscaping and floral exhibits. There is a ferris wheel and other rides for children. Balloons bloom in clusters to delight young and old.

You can listen to music of the turn of the century as you eat supper. Then you can stroll through the park, seeing men in straw hats and ladies in old, high-collared lace.

This evening's program includes a ballroom dance exhibit at 5 p.m., an organ concert at 6 p.m., the Un-Called Four, a barbershop quartet, at 7 p.m. and the Marin Civic Ballet at 8:30 p.m.

Peninsula Tire Heap Makes Huge Bonfire

BRISBANE (UPI)—A smoldering tire fire which began Sunday night sent a towering 300-foot column of black smoke over San Francisco Bay today.

Firemen said the block-square pile of tires, 8 to 10 feet high, had been stored in the same place for years. They said they were unable to prevent the blaze from spreading.

Nuclear Center Blast Hurts Seven Workers

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Seven young researchers were badly burned today when a bubble chamber brimful of liquid hydrogen exploded at a nuclear experiments center run by Harvard and Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The chamber, part of a $12-million project financed by the Atomic Energy Commission, set off a two-alarm fire in the Cambridge Electronics Accelerator Center on Oxford Street.

The apparatus was fed by a electron accelerator buried in the ground outside the building's foundations.

The center's director, Dr. M. Stanley Livingston, MIT physics professor, said "radioactivity is absolutely ruled out" even though the accelerator was on at the time.

But Livingston said scientists would probably not be allowed in the building for four to five days.

No statement was made on the cause. However, a fire official quoted one accelerator administrator as saying a hydrogen purifier may have been responsible.

Three of those injured were on the danger list at Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston.

Suffering from third-degree burns over most of their bodies were Arthur C. Ridd, 19, of Avon, an MIT technical assistant; Frank Feinberg, 20, of Providence, an MIT sophomore; and John Schivell, a Harvard graduate student.

Also hospitalized with burns were Louis Hand, 31, of Cambridge, an assistant professor of physics at Harvard; Dennis Ehm, 25, a Harvard graduate student; Bent Huld, a Harvard graduate student; and Don Golski, an MIT graduate student.

Authorities said about 20 persons were in the center when the hydrogen exploded and caught fire. A second explosion followed.

Livingston said damage would be "on the order of $1 million." He said it would set his experiments back many months.

Crash Kills Playboy Rubirosa

PARIS (AP) Porfirio Rubirosa, former Dominican diplomat and international playboy, was fatally injured this morning in an automobile accident.

Police said Rubirosa died while being taken to a hospital. The accident occurred in the famed Bois de Boulogne on the western edge of Paris.

Police reported that the Ferrari automobile he was driving left the road and crashed into a tree after colliding with another car.

Police said Rubirosa's car struck a parked vehicle and then careened into a tree along Hippodrome Way in the Boulogne Woods. They said they understood he had suffered severe head injuries.

Rubirosa was long a familiar figure in the night life of Paris, but recently had not frequented night spots as much as in former years. He was a polo devotee and played frequently with teams at the Bagatelle polo grounds in the Bois de Boulogne.

Rubirosa was the former husband of Flor de Oro Trujillo, daughter of the assassinated President Trujillo; Woolworth heiress Barbara Hutton; Doris Duke and French actress Danielle Darrieux.

Rubirosa married Odile Rodin Oct. 27, 1956. They made their home outside Paris.

Multi-Million Plan Sought For Safer Cars

Congressman Asks Federal Action To Halt Slaughter

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The federal government will be asked to spend up to $5 million to develop a model safety car.

Freshman Rep. James J. Howard, D-N. J., said he plans to introduce three bills Monday "aimed at stepping up our war against the appalling and unnecessary slaughter which this year alone is expected to take more than 50,000 lives on the nation's highways."

The major measure in the package would authorize the General Services Administration (GSA) to research, design, develop, construct and test fully operational motor vehicles in prototype quantities.

COMPANION BILL

The initial reaction from the auto industry was unknown.

Howard's bill is a companion bill to legislation introduced in the Senate last week by Sen. Gaylord Nelson, D-Wis.

The second bill to be introduced would prescribe certain safety features for all motor vehicles manufactured for, sold or shipped in interstate commerce.

The measure stems from requirements set down by the GSA stipulating that 17 safety features must be included in any 1967 car the government purchases.

Howard said the safety features should be expanded to include all cars.

His measure would make it mandatory for all new cars to be equipped with an exhaust control to reduce air pollution; an impact-absorbing steering wheel and column; a passenger harness, a padded dash and visor; safety door latches and hinges; safety glass; glare reduction surfaces; a dual braking system, standard bumper heights and several other safety features.

TO COST BUYER

Presumably, the cost of these items would be passed on to the buyer, although Howard feels the features can be mass-produced at a relatively low cost.

Under his bill, any manufacturer failing to meet the federal requirements would be subject to a fine of up to $1,000 for each vehicle produced in violation of the law.

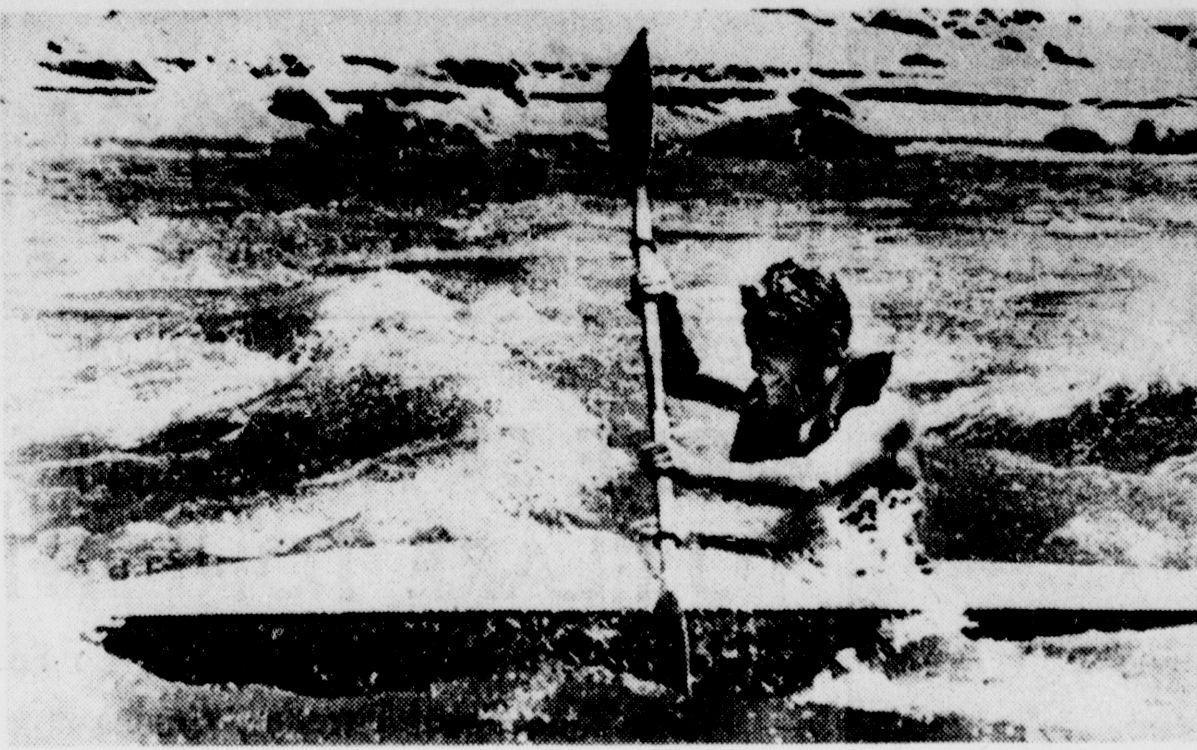

A third measure would set federal standards for the grading and labeling of auto tires. It would ban outright the sale of tires rated as unsafe and would establish minimum safety and performance standards for all tires.

It was considered unlikely that Howard's bills would get far in Congress this late in the session.

Thousands Of Youths Celebrate Fourth With Drunken Brawls

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Thousands of rowdy, beer-drinking youths celebrating the Fourth of July weekend brought drunken brawls, looting and destruction to resort areas in five states.

In several trouble spots, troops were called out.

More than 600 persons were arrested on charges ranging from public drunkenness to disorderly conduct and assault.

The chief trouble spots were Lake George, N.Y.; Russells Point and Geneva-On-The-Lake, Hyannis, Mass., and Arnolds Park, Iowa.

At Geneva-On-The-Lake last night police used billy clubs to herd thousands of youths out of the Lake Erie resort community. Many of the rowdies threw beer cans and shouted epithets at the officers.

The National Guard was alerted as about 10,000 youths milled about, throwing firecrackers and rocks at sheriff's deputies.

Ohio Gov. James A. Rhodes alerted the National Guard to be ready to move in from nearby Ashtabula if necessary.

Police in the tiny Adirondack mountains resort village of Lake George, N.Y., reported more than 300 arrests had been made during three nights of youthful melees.

At least 40 persons were arrested yesterday.

At Russells Point, Ohio, some 1,500 youths took over a three-block area for a time, fighting police until National Guardsmen were called in.

Finally, after tear gas was used, 120 youths were arrested. Hundreds were injured.

Holiday celebrants in Rockaway Beach, Mo., broke the windows of several stores, looted a liquor store and market and tossed bottles, rocks and fireworks at law officers.

Bishop Pike Criticizes Luci Johnson Re-Baptism

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Episcopal Bishop James A. Pike has described Luci Johnson's rebaptism as a Roman Catholic as "sacrilegious" and a "direct slap" at the Episcopal Church.

Bishop Pike's statements, made from his Grace Cathedral pulpit in San Francisco yesterday, drew no comment from the White House or Catholic diocesan spokesmen in Washington, D.C.

Bishop Pike's sermon asked for apologies from the President's younger daughter and Rev. James A. Montgomery, who re-baptized her in the Catholic faith Friday on her 18th birthday.

The bishop said that both Episcopal and Catholic churches teach that baptism is "an unrepeatable sacrament." He said Miss Johnson was baptized in the Episcopal Church as an infant.

Head of the Episcopal Diocese of California, covering 10 western California counties, Pike termed the second baptism a "direct slap at our church" and "totally void of any sacramental effect and thus sacrilegious."

He said that he himself had been "received" into the Episcopal Church because he first had been baptized as a Catholic.

Of Miss Johnson's conversion itself, Bishop Pike praised the independence of anyone—including Luci — who chooses another faith.

The bishop explained at a news conference later that he raised the matter in a desire to avert a breach in growing understanding among Christian churches.

"In my heart and mind I felt it to be my duty to speak out against what I regard as an act contrary to the ecumenism that is abroad in the world of today," he said.

Deputies Keep Watch At Bass Lake On Cyclists

BASS LAKE (AP) — Extra forces of law enforcement officers continued to keep watch today on an estimated 200 Hells Angels motorcyclists camping with 20,000 others at Bass Lake resort.

Madera County sheriff's deputies said, only one cyclist, 24-year-old Emery H. Bowen of San Francisco, was arrested. He was charged with drunken driving yesterday after his motorcycle crashed into a sheriff's car controlling intersection traffic.

The sheriff said a non-motorcyclist, 33-year-old Robert Warren Grant of Hollywood, was jailed in lieu of $550 bail yesterday for interfering with officers.

Grant, who said he was a free lance writer and photographer, tried to push through officers who were arresting Bowen, the sheriff said.

The writer said he was doing a feature on the Hells Angels.

At the request of deputies, the Hells Angels group has camped together at a single lake site.

State Legislature Stated To Adjourn

By Capitol News Service

SACRAMENTO—The California legislature is scheduled to adjourn its special session tomorrow but not until after it sets some more precedents to go down in the annals of strange California politics.

The big financial wrangle of the special session, and regular session, were settled last week when the two houses agreed to raise just enough money to finance the $4.18 billion budget for 1965-66 — putting off major tax increases or reforms until later.

Then the lawmakers became bogged down on a state version of a Medicare bill—a measure to take any forthcoming federal funds and use them to provide pre-paid medical insurance for aged aid recipients. This program was killed off in the senate.

Meanwhile, another dispute was brewing as to how much property should be purchased at Sugar Pine Point, on the west shore of Lake Tahoe, for a state park. A compromise on that finally has been worked out and was expected to be approved without debate on July 6. In fact, that's the only reason the lawmakers will return next week.

Before the pre-holiday weekend agreement was reached, however, there were some strange shenanigans. Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Inglewood, and his loyal troops want tax reform and the medical care bill. They didn't want to leave Sacramento until this was accomplished.

But the senate opposed tax reform at this session and appeared to care not at all about a medicare program.

Unruh tried to push through a resolution to recess the session until Oct. 4, then to return and enact a medicare bill and probably act on tax reforms. The senators indicated they wanted to go home and didn't care too much about returning in October.

The compromise finally reached was that the legislature will adjourn with the flat promise of Governor Edmund G. Brown that he will call the lawmakers back into session, if and when the congress adopts a federal medical care plan.

Unruh's contention has been that the state would lose its share of the federal medicare money if it was not set to pass it along to welfare recipients in California.

The assembly speaker perhaps would have preferred to have the legislators return under his call in the fall, rather than that of the governor, for personal publicity reasons. But the governor's promise, made in the presence of a number of witnesses, was assurance the legislature would have a chance to act on medicare before year's end.

Hypnosis Tried To Find Cause Of Air Crashes

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) is looking into the use of voluntary hypnosis to help solve air crashes.

The technique, as applied to civil air accidents, is strictly in the experimental stage, but it is not new.

The first known employment of hypnosis in a crash investigation occurred several years ago, in the case of a Lockheed test pilot who cracked up in a new military plane and could not recall any details of the accident. Under hypnosis, he remembered everything that occurred before and during the crash.

The CAB actually has tried hypnosis on two separate occasions. The first involved the 1962 crash of a Federal Aviation Agency (FAA) Constellation on Canton Island in the Pacific. The lone survivor, an FAA doctor who was riding in the cockpit, drew a complete blank in trying to tell the CAB what had happened.

He volunteered to take one of the so-called "truth serums"—sodium amytal—and submitted to narcosynthesis, or hypnosis under the influence of drugs. He was able to tell investigators exactly what had occurred in the cockpit, supplying the CAB with sufficient details to solve the accident.

Thomas W. Stoddard is president of the San Anselmo Homes Association.

Indians Attacked By Racist Crowd

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—Four dark-skinned students from India were attacked Sunday by a crowd at a "We, the White People" rally as they toured the Capitol.

Two of the Indians were beaten. Police Chief David Kyser said that although all four wore the distinctive turbans of their homeland the crowd mistook them for Negroes.

Seven Louisiana State University white students who attended the rally on the Capitol lawn to pass out critical leaflets were roughed up.

The Indians, also LSU students, were being conducted on an official tour of the Capitol when they were attacked. They fled down a side street. One was treated at a hospital for a laceration.

No arrests were made. The Indians had paused to listen to a speech by former Army Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker of Dallas when they were set upon.

Identities of the four were withheld.

The rally, held in front of the 34-story Capitol, drew from 4,500 to 6,500 persons, by police estimate. They waved Confederate flags, wore rebel hats, held placards criticizing President Johnson and Gov. John J. McKeithen, and stood through about three hours of oratory.

Walker told the crowd that President Johnson has, in effect, a segregationist policy because "Negroes are becoming wards of the state and it's just an out-and-out segregation program."

The Warren Committee report on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy was false propaganda, Walker added.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

Youth Center Opening Feted In Mill Valley

"Get into the struggle," Capt. A. R. Cook told a large crowd, swarming with youngsters, yesterday at the opening of the Mill Valley community and youth center.

"Youth should be a time of ferment, not cement," said Cook, chaplain, 12th Naval District.

About 1,500 persons attended the event at the new center building at Project 17, much of which was built by youths either in fund raising or actual construction.

Hundreds watched last night in cars and from homes a spectacular fireworks display fired from a point near the city's new center. The "Grand Old Fourth" celebration continues today through 11 p.m.

Captain Cook quoted, "the world is passing through troubled times. The young people today have no respect for God's laws." Then he added, "that was written in 1260, or 705 years ago. 'I quoted this to remind your parents that any doubts they may entertain about you as young people are not peculiar to this generation.'"

Mayor Michael Wornum told the audience, which stood in warm sun around the many game and refreshment booths, "We are the parents. We are the ones who must see they (the youngsters) have a chance."

He praised the people for having "worked with their hands" and the city for helping to organize the center.

"This is just the beginning of our program," he said. "This will be the container to put in our efforts for the youth of Mill Valley."

Wornum congratulated G. W. Robertson, work committee chairman, and deputized him vice mayor to hand out certificates to about 50 persons and organizations for work on the center.

Councilman William M. Secor then made special awards to winners in the costume parade. The ribbon was cut at 3 p.m. by Barbara Lennon, 1965 Mill Valley queen, and Bill Woods, master of ceremonies, announced: "The building is now officially opened."

New York Taxi Drivers Return

NEW YORK (AP)—Drivers of fleet-owned taxicabs—more than the usual number for a holiday—returned to work today, ending a seven-day taxi strike.

Police estimated that 60 percent of the city's 12,000 taxicabs were operating.

One dispatcher noted that more men showed up than usual for a holiday. "I guess their belts are tight," he said.

Owners and drivers agreed to submit disputes arising from the strike to binding arbitration by a "czar," Screvane said.

Transit Plan, Cost Slated For Hearing

Debate over the merits of Marin County going into the transit business will begin at 10 a.m. tomorrow before the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

The board meeting begins at 9 a.m. in the Civic Center.

The hearing on the transit study prepared by retired transit executive Paul J. Fanning is expected to prompt criticism from several sources, including board members themselves.

Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen, after meeting with Fanning, said in a letter to the board that he will not agree to either of the proposals in the report unless Greyhound Lines agrees to underwrite the losses.

Fanning suggested the Marin Transit District either take over and operate Greyhound Lines commuter buses or have Greyhound operate the present schedules under a management contract with the county. In either case, Fanning recommends that the county purchase 3.6 million dollars worth of new buses.

There will be a deficit in the operation no matter which plan is followed, Fanning concludes.

Kettenhofen's letter relates that Greyhound now has a $500,000 annual loss in Marin. If the county took over the system, either through operation or management contract, the annual loss would be about $200,000. In other words, the bus company would stand to gain $300,000 a year through county take-over. Kettenhofen believes

NAACP Plans Next Convention In Atlantic City

DENVER (AP)—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has decided to conduct its 1966 convention in Atlantic City, N.J., rather than going to Birmingham, Ala.

Delegates from Southern states tried to get the convention for Birmingham. The site was chosen as the NAACP ended its 56th convention in Denver Saturday.

The delegates agreed to a resolution asking United Nations Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson to ask the nations of South America, Asia and Africa to refuse visas to missionaries of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon).

The resolution complained that the church practices "a doctrine of Negro inferiority" by excluding Negroes from its priesthood. A stronger resolution was defeated.

the company should underwrite this difference.

Through being a public agency, Kettenhofen sees that $100,000 to $120,000 could be saved in the operation, but he sees "no other economically feasible reason" for the takeover.

At noon tomorrow the board is to meet for lunch at Marin General Hospital with directors of the Marin Hospital District to discuss operation of a community mental health clinic to be placed in an addition to the hospital.

The board meeting will resume at the Civic Center at 2 p.m. rather than the usual 1:30 p.m.

Supervisors tomorrow will also consider a policy on the formation of special assessment districts, discuss returning to the old schedule of a day meeting every Tuesday, and consider a terminal year agreement with the Marin Council of Community Services on the older adults project.

Police Arrest 16 In Attack On Girl, 19

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Police say the rape of a police lieutenant's daughter has led to the arrest of 16 persons.

Eight of the men have been booked on suspicion of rape, eight others on other charges.

The eighth to be booked on suspicion of rape was arrested Sunday. Police identified him as Mathew D. Melville, 20, of Northridge.

Meanwhile, one of the eight booked on other charges remained in critical condition at Los Angeles County General Hospital.

He is Carl E. Norman, 21, whom police say was shot by Lt. Thomas E. O'Neal, father of Shirley Diane O'Neal, 19. Miss O'Neal was attacked last week as she sold books door-to-door in Northridge. Officers said O'Neal shot Norman three times Friday in the West Valley Police Station.

Norman has been booked on suspicion of possessing marijuana. O'Neal has been charged with assault with intent to commit murder. He immediately was relieved of duty and was freed on bail.

Chief To Attend

Kentfield Fire Chief Kenneth Kamp will attend the California Staff and Command School for California firemen July 26-31 at the Santa Rita Rehabilitation Center near Pleasanton.

Mammoth Cave Breathes Air

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP)—Tourists often wonder why the temperature remains at 54 degrees inside Mammoth Cave.

The cave breathes. When it's below 54 outside, an in-breathing or movement of air in the cave occurs. When the outside temperature is above 54, the cycle is reversed.

San Quentin Inmates Ready Variety Show

The Inmate Council of San Quentin Prison will present its semi-annual Inmate Variety Program on Saturday at 9:30 a.m.

The two-hour, all-prison talent show will have 70 participants performing in 15 acts. The show will be held in the prison's lower yard.

At approximately 5:30 last Tuesday evening an eight inch water main was broken, causing flooding within an excavation on Du Bois Street. There was a period of one hour during which residents in the vicinity were without water. What took place to restore that water service in such a short time and what was done to avert possible damage to City and private property due to flooding is the subject of this acknowledgement.

The water district crew, under the direction of Russ Ghilotti, responded to the report of damage immediately and worked diligently and with obvious competence to make repairs promptly.

Fire Chief Vance Trivett appeared on the scene within minutes after the mishap to check affected hydrants and to analyze his department's fire fighting position in view of the reduced water supply in the area. He then ordered a pumper to the site, and he and his men lent a very big hand in dewatering the excavation area. Danger of damage to the City street and adjacent properties was thus eliminated.

Often in situations like this you find many bystanders who are disposed to watch proceedings while a few people work to normalize the condition. This wasn't the case last Tuesday. There were no bystanders. But there were many who bent their backs and slogged through mud to position pumps and cut channels for drainage. We can't name them all. We couldn't even thank them all that evening, because some of them left after seeing that there would be no further need for them, that all was under control.

But we did manage to get a partial list of those volunteers, and we'd like to add their names to those mentioned above. There was Bill Brandon, Harold Geister, Michael Geister, Bill Magee, and Trevor Thomas. These men put in a lot of work, without anyone asking for their help, and with no benefit to themselves as a result. It was a most heartening demonstration of one man's concern for another, and our purpose here is to acknowledge these deeds and express our sincere gratitude.

It is said that a City is what its people make it.

San Rafael is surely one of the greatest.

'Under Gaslight'
Is Not Up To Par

By KARL BARRON
For a second summer, Sausalito Little Theater is presenting Augustin Daly's "Under the Gaslight" on Friday and Saturday night at 8:30.
We'd like to be able to report that it's as good a show as last year, but unfortunately, it's not. Aside from a leading lady who shines, and two beautiful stage devices, the production under Penny Vieregge's direction lacks vitality, and the actors appear eager to be going elsewhere.

The leading lady is a handsome blonde named Jessie-Anne Peebles. Miss Peebles shows a deft touch, and after a beginning so sincere that one forgets it's melodrama she's playing, really tears into the part for all it's worth.
Ken Stearn plays the villainous Byke with proper gusto, but somehow never gets the audience hissing as they should. Old Judas, Byke's wife, was played the night we saw it by Miss Vieregge, whose makeup was superb, but whose acting was flat.

Fred H. Trice, as Snorky the one-armed Civil War vet, lends the show much of what drive it possesses. Despite a tendency to be unintelligible, he is sincere and overplays just enough.
The boat that is paddled through moving water, and the train engine which stops on-stage a foot from Snorky's head are delightful parts of Gerald Frye's set design.

There's little else to say about the production. Walt Silva's saloon next door helps to ease the whole thing, as does the fine piano work of Leonard Jared.
The olios vary, and we're told there are some good ones. Mona Horwitz with a song of the period was charming the night we caught it, but the other two olios were just not worth describing.

Science Program Signups Taken

Independent-Journal, Monday, July 5, 1965 7
Udall Predicts Killer Pollution
WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Interior Stewart L. Udall has predicted that air pollution may someday reach killer status.
Speaking on NBC's radio-television program "Meet the Press" yesterday, Udall said one of the worst aspects of air pollution today is that the general public doesn't seem to be worried.
"My own guess," he said, "is that sooner or later we are going to have a very severe incidence of air pollution and we are going to have deaths that will be directly attributable to it and then the country will get alarmed about it."
Udall said local governments will have to play a major role in cleaning up the nation's air.

Time Running Out For San Rafael's Downtown

Time seems to be running out on San Rafael's opportunity to influence the development of the old courthouse property in a way that will "save" the downtown shopping area.

When the next unit of the county's civic center is completed, the plan is to vacate the old courthouse and hall of records in downtown San Rafael. The property will be placed on the auction block for sale to the highest bidder, presumably for something like one and a half million dollars.

The highest bidder presumably will be a developer who could chop it into tiny lots and sell them off one-by-one or build as densely as possible, further aggravating the traffic congestion and parking problems of the area.

This is the most likely course of events, if San Rafael takes no immediate, decisive contrary action.

The city will lose the park-like atmosphere of historical courthouse square. Equally important, the city will lose the opportunity to provide the additional off-street parking which is going to be needed if downtown San Rafael is to continue as a leading retail shopping area in time to come.

As has been previously pointed out in the I-J and elsewhere, the courthouse square CAN be developed so as to provide ample off street parking for future needs—either underground or in a multi-story building set sufficiently far back from the street so as to allow retention of a park-like area all around it.

Opportunity is knocking loud and clear for San Rafael.

The chamber of commerce, the city council, the retail merchants, and the taxpayers (who will have to "take up the slack" by paying higher residential taxes if and when downtown business property values decline as they have done in other areas bested by new outlying shopping areas) must respond to the knock at the door.

It is later than most of us seem to think.

'Giant Rats?'

Because of their abundance and appearance, opossums are frequently called giant rats in the Los Angeles area. This ugliest and stupidest of California's warm-blooded creatures is not quite so common in Marin's cool climate, but a few specimens do live here.

This unattractive, tree-climbing, nocturnal animal might seem to some people to be a useless, no-good killer of chickens. But scientists like the opossum because it is our only North American marsupial. As such, the opossum carries her tiny embryonic babies in a fur-lined pouch, enabling embryologists to observe them at all stages of development. Other animal embryos develop inside the womb and are inaccessible.

SACRAMENTO SCENE

Legislature Ignores Own Idea Of Breaking Costly Bond Habit

By EDWIN S. CAPPS

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The 1965 session of the Legislature must go in the record books as one in which only lip service was paid to the need for getting off the bond issue joyride which is leading California down a one-way street.

MOST FISCAL experts have been warning for several years that the state cannot continue to finance recurring costs of building new colleges, hospitals, prisons and state buildings with bond funds. The original idea of bond financing was that it should be limited to one-time expenditures which the future generations could help to finance.

But a growing state such as California finds the needs for new buildings are not one-time, but recurring.

LAST YEAR, the Legislature adopted a "conscience" resolution calling for a return to pay-as-you-go financing for capital outlay costs. In his message to the legislature in January, Gov. Edmund G. Brown also said at least $50 million in construction costs in the next year should come from current revenues.

However, when the governor discovered that the state could get by two more years without a major tax increase, he was quick to say the pay-as-you-go plan could wait for another two years.

Brown was not joined in this sentiment by Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, and more recently Unruh has presented some cold, hard facts on just what lies ahead if the credit-card approach to financing state buildings continues.

Unruh, incidentally, favored a mammoth tax reform-increase program this year, and one of the reasons for this was to provide up to $75 million a year to meet part of the construction costs from tax money rather than bonds.

That program, of course, is now but so much water under the legislative bridge.

UNRUH HAS PROVIDED a hint of what this perversion of fiscal responsibility can mean. The 1965-66 budget provides $105 million for construction work at the University of California and the state college campuses. This leaves only $78 million in unsold bonds remaining, Unruh said.

Next year, the university will ask for $87 million for building needs and the state college request will total $71 million, for a grand total of $158 million. This does not include money that will be needed for new hospitals, prisons, motor vehicles buildings, highway patrol offices and other institutions.

Unruh made a flat prediction that the administration would be in during the budget session of 1966 with a proposal for another bond issue for state building needs.

"I'm not going to vote for it," the speaker added.

Now that California is in its present straits, where bond service costs — interest and principal — take as much money as is provided for expenditure each year, there's no single area where the blame can be placed. The easy and painless method of bond financing got its start under Gov. Goodwin J. Knight.

AND SINCE that first state construction bond issue was submitted to the voters and approved, the only change has been that the bond issues have been coming more frequently and in larger amounts.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Density Location Has Meaning, Too

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I read with interest and approval your editorial of June 30 regarding some of the dangers of "suburban sprawl" and some of the "flaws" of preservation.

May I take this opportunity to add a couple of more thoughts on the subject. First, I am sure we recognize that the so-called barbecue pit, patio and poolside way of life requires low density development, but also requires the warm and sunny weather of particular sections of Marin.

It would, therefore, seem to me that higher density for another way of life should be located in those parts of Marin that have more cool and windy weather. I would further hope that any further setting aside of large acreages for recreation for people be located in our better weather areas.

Furthermore, large recreational areas should be located, I believe, in the rural areas that are centrally located to all Marinites. High density development, conversely, should be located as close as possible to present highways, bridges and metropolitan areas.

Density Yardsticks Held Not Arbitrary

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The headline of your June 30 editorial is superb: "Suburban Sprawl Will Not Preserve Open Country." However, the text is deplorable for the implication that "density yardsticks," presumably those now used in the county, are "blindly arbitrary" and will make "things worse instead of better."

You quoted me on June 5 when I said at the Future of Marin Conference: "Don't overdo the conservation aspect. . . . It is development which will change the face of this county." I also said: "Density controls are the very ESSENCE of planning and zoning. NO COMMUNITY, NOT EVEN A PLANNED COMMUNITY, CAN DO WITHOUT THEM. Density is the way we measure and set the urban character of an area."

Few are against the principle of clustering buildings to preserve open space. This principle can be accomplished within the 3.5 density limitation in the P-C Planned Community District in this county. Gulf Oil and R. E. Simon Enterprises are doing it at Reston, Va. Gulf and Frouge have yet to try to plan Marinello within this limit.

The 3.5 density is empirically derived. To imply that it, or other "density yardsticks," are "blindly arbitrary" is to do a disservice to our county.

Reed Taxpayer Gives Answer To Criticism

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In reference to Hazel S. Martin's Letter to the Editor of June 29, 1965. . . I must agree that "we in the Reed School District have been watching Mr. Pino's administrative talents for some time" . . . and may I add . . . watching them with pride . . . Dr. Pino has introduced many new programs and ideas which have gained for this district nationwide recognition. . . any real estate person . . . will tell you that our fine school district is a chief selling point of homes in this area.

Our budget per pupil is approximately twice Mill Valley's, but our pupil-teacher ratio is 25-1, compared with 30-1 in Mill Valley. . . the bulk of our tax money goes to teacher salaries. . . We employ only teachers with five-year credentials. No other elementary school district in . . . California has that requirement. Our average teacher salary is $8,150. Mill Valley's is $7,500. Is this an "invisible standard"? . . . Mill Valley school district pays a total of $49,918 to three administrative superintendents for a student body of 3,328 . . . we pay one superintendent $19,000 and one administrative intern $4,400 for a student body of 1,510, a total of $23,400. . . Is this so out of line?

The fact that Mr. Pino made a "public issue out of one small item, bus service" . . . is not a fact at all. . . Bus service was but one item of a long list of possible cuts. . . Such cuts were demanded by a vocal group of taxpayers who appeared at the June 22 budget hearing. The timing of these persons . . . could not have been worse . . . next year's teachers have already been contracted for, there is not much that could have been cut at this point that would not have been dramatic.

Mrs. Martin is right . . . the real issues here are not things like bus service, but rather . . . whether or not the community is still willing to support the kinds of programs we currently have in the district; . . . and whether or not we are still willing to pay for same!

. . . That heavily-attended special budget session last Thursday night was NOT lopsided with tax-cut supporters as indicated by your I-J reporter! There were an equal number of strong backers of the current program who agree with me and stand firmly behind Dr. Pino and the Reed Board of Trustees!

Max Rafferty Aide Replies To Editorial

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your editorial of June 23, "How, Dr. Rafferty, Do We Remedy Education Ills?", was read with great interest.

The Superintendent has at other times and other places made suggestions which if adopted by local school districts would serve to remedy California educational ills.

I have enclosed copies of several letters which Dr. Rafferty has mailed to each school board president and administrator in California in recent months.

Additionally, I have enclosed copies of a few of his copyrighted columns which set forth recommendations on various school problems and which he has enumerated before school administrators and school board members throughout the state.

Your continued interest in education is appreciated.

Republican Party Woes Blamed On Lack Of Well-Thought Goals

WASHINGTON — Somebody ought to come right out and say it: The Republican Party is suffering from a political malaise which isn't going to be cured by just talking about the need of winning the suburban vote and better ways of raising money.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower is beginning to bring it into the open and he is speaking more in sadness than in anger.

HE HAS JOINED National Chairman Ray Bliss in criticizing the splintering of the party by ideological factions and in sternly lamenting the "hoodlum" disorder of the 1964 convention.

That's a good beginning and Mr. Eisenhower has earned his credentials to speak to his party—and to be heeded.

But what neither Mr. Eisenhower nor the other leaders have attempted to determine is whether the malaise within party ranks is cause or effect. It is clear, however, that the struggle to get the GOP back to the political center is being held back by it.

The malaise I am referring to is illustrated by the right-wing Republican zealots in California who circulated a fabricated report attempting to smear Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel. It was a false and baseless libel, now admitted by its perpetrators and apologized for.

It is illustrated by the farce in which a pro-Goldwater man, who was soon to leave as GOP finance director, had his desk jimmied at night by a once-trusted Bliss aide for the ostensible purpose of capturing some lists of contributors he thought were going to be abused.

IT IS ILLUSTRATED by Mr. Eisenhower's publicly expressed "horror" at the confusion, intolerable department and bicing of fellow-Republicans at San Francisco where, he said, there was "hoodlum harassment" of the wife of a speaker and of his own niece, who was a page on the floor.

What can be the state of mind within a party to bring about such goings on?

The Republican malaise goes deeper than convention excesses. It is compounded of miasmic suspicions among themselves, mutual distrust and an apparent willingness on the part of the more extreme conservatives to tear the party apart rather than to try to build a workable consensus at the center.

President Eisenhower is making a constructive beginning by urging that the convention be made a more respectable instrument.

But I cannot escape the conviction that something more fundamental is needed — and soon. I believe that the dominant leaders of the party must decide where they want the party to go, what they want it to stand for—this year and into 1968. And then go there, even if it means leaving the extremists on either side of the party to desert if they wish.

IDEALLY, the services of Barry M. Goldwater would be valuable within the party leadership. But outside the party his influence through his new Free Society Assn. is divisive — as divisive as a Nixon splinter group would have been if he had organized one like it after his 1960 defeat.

I believe that the Republican leaders can succeed at re-grouping the party at its political center if they see it as crucial to do so—even at the risk of losing the extremes.

The Republican Party will not cure its malaise until its leaders determine what they want the party to be.

U.S. May Shift Stand On Saigon Pledges

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—The U.S. is trying to arrange an exchange of prisoners, military and civilian, with North Viet Nam. So far, this unannounced effort has been unavailing. But it's continuing.

At U.S. request, Canada and India, members of the ineffectual International Commission on Viet Nam, proposed to North Viet Nam that prisoner exchange discussions be undertaken in Warsaw. Since 1955, the Polish capital has been the site of meetings between the ambassadors of the U.S. and Red China.

TWO DIRECT feelers were required before the Hanoi Reds countered with a proposal of their own.

They demanded Viet Cong participation in the official delegation. This has been rejected by the Johnson administration.

However, it has kept the door open by proposing that representatives of both South Viet Nam and the Viet Cong attend the negotiations in the role of "observers."

Outcome of this offer is conjectural.

The Senate Armed Services Committee has been informed by the Defense Department that it lists 18 as definitely prisoners of war—13 military, five civilians. Another 29 are recorded as "missing in Viet Nam due to hostile action," but there is no certainty as to their fate or whereabouts.

The Country Parson

"The only thing everybody has the same amount of is time—and yet we all leave important tasks to folks who we think have more of it."

The same is true of six others "missing not due to hostile action." Over-all total is 53.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk heads a group of White House advisers that strongly favors accepting the Viet Cong as official negotiators.

A MAJOR FACTOR stressed by the Rusk faction is that prisoner exchange talks in Korea opened the way for the deliberations that resulted in the armistice that has been in effect since 1953. The State Department contends the same may be possible in the Viet Nam conflict.

President Lyndon B. Johnson has voiced opposition to "negotiating directly" with the Viet Cong. The government of South Viet Nam is adamantly against direct negotiations with the Viet Cong; as long as Saigon insists, the U.S. is bound to follow suit.

A CURIOUS STATEMENT on Viet Nam by Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana is causing considerable baffled conjecture among his colleagues. It is definitely known Mansfield made the statement at the request of the State Department.

He said:

"It is a good time to note that the commitment we made years ago in Viet Nam was to the people of Viet Nam, and it was made through the government of President Ngo Dinh Diem, who was the only one of this parade of governments in Saigon which received any formal endorsement from the people of Viet Nam in elections . . . while this commitment may continue on an interim basis in view of the critical situation, to any successor occupant of Gia Long Palace in Saigon, the commitment is still intended for the people of Viet Nam and solely to bring about their peace in freedom."

One member of the Senate Armed Services Committee asked, "Does this mean the administration doesn't consider itself bound by any commitments with the present regime in Saigon, or what?"

A SUSPICIOUS Republican indicated the way is being prepared to negotiate with the Viet Cong. Certainly something is behind it."

All The World's A Stage, Or, Who'll Win The Race In Marin?

HAVE YOU HEARD about Marin's great auditorium race? It looks now as if the College of Marin will get its auditorium up first. Construction is expected to start sometime this summer.

The Veterans' Memorial Auditorium, planned as a county project at the Civic Center, will not begin until next year at the earliest.

Both are planned with full staging equipment with all the expensive trappings. The college project is to have 600 capacity, while the county auditorium will seat either 2,000 or 3,000. That hasn't been decided yet.

All the world is a stage, but in Marin they are cropping up everywhere. Oh well, it's only money.

You would think, however, that taxpayers might start demonstrating stages. I mean staging demonstrations.

With two big stages, one thing is sure — it will put a strain on local talent to keep them busy every night.

If you can give imitations, play the harmonica, do the soft shoe, carry a tune or whistle, you had best start practicing.

You're going to be busy.

Incidentally, that college theater better be more conducive to acting than that new college gymnasium is to grunting and groaning. That gym is such a tiny place that most athletes would be afraid to sweat there.

IT LOOKS AS IF the San Rafael Board of Education has found a way to clamp down on school expansion. They have run clean out of good names for new schools.

The current struggle is over a moniker for the school planned on Canal Street. It was suggested the other day that it be called "Miwok School." That's really giving it back to the Indians.

Seems with the school board's hopes for a two-story school being dashed, that "Low-Rise School" might fit. In fact, the board could call it "Low-Rise Intermediate" and succeed in confusing everyone.

SUPERVISOR Byron W. Leydecker was complaining that he gets more letters from fellow Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen than he gets from his own constituents. Kettenhofen really cranks them out.

THE BIG MEETING room at the Civic Center, usually divided into supervisors' chambers and planning commission hearing room, has been drawing some fire from the men who use it most.

Planning Commissioner Eugene R. Trombley recently said he thought the supervisors' side of the room was better than the planning commission's side as far as seeing map presentations and hearing from the audience went. He asked that the commission use that side whenever possible.

Leydecker said the other day that he figured out why supervisors kept interrupting each other so much. It was because the board table was so arranged the supervisors could not easily look at one another and could not see when someone else was talking.

Supervisor Thomas T. Storer was so quick to agree with this that he interrupted Leydecker.

School Budget Is On Agenda

Lagunitas School district trustees are scheduled to approve their publication budget tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of Lagunitas School.

The board adopted a preliminary budget of $253,112 at its June 15 meeting.

Bids for lease of three temporary classrooms will be opened at the meeting. Classroom leasing was made possible by the 20-cent tax increase passed June 8.

ART BUCHWALD

The Great Computer'll Getcha If You Bend, Fold Or Mutilate

WASHINGTON — Most bills are now sent out on perforated business machine cards that say in large letters DO NOT FOLD, BEND OR MUTILATE. I have a friend who doesn't like to be told what to do with a bill, and one day, to my horror, I saw him fold, bend and mutilate a card right in front of my eyes.

"You shouldn't have done that," I said, quivering. "There is a curse on anyone in the United States who folds, bends or mutilates a bill."

He laughed at me. "That's an old wives' tale. This is a free country, isn't it?"

"Only if you don't fold, bend or mutilate."

"You're chicken," he said. "No computer is going to tell me what to do."

I didn't see my friend for several months. Then I finally ran across him in a bar. He was unshaven, dirty and obviously had been on a bender. "What happened?" I asked. "The curse," he croaked. "The curse got me."

Then he told me his story. He had sent back the folded, bent and mutilated card to the company and received another card in a week, saying, "We told you not to F., B. or M. THIS IS YOUR LAST CHANCE."

"I crumpled up the card and sent it back," he said. "Still thinking I had the upper hand. Then it started."

"First my telephone went out on me. I could not send or receive any messages. I went down to the phone company and they were very nice until they looked up my name. Then the woman said, 'It says here that you mutilated your bill.'"

"I didn't mutilate my phone bill."

"It doesn't make any difference what bill you mutilated. Our computer is aware of what you did to another computer and it refuses to handle your account."

"How would your computer know that?"

"There is a master computer that informs all other computers of anyone who folds or bends or mutilates a card. I'm afraid there is nothing we can do about it."

My friend took another drink. "The same thing happened when my electricity was cut off and my gas. Everyone was sorry but they all claimed they were unable to do anything for me.

"Finally, pay day came, but there was no check for me. I complained to my boss and he just shrugged his shoulders and said, 'It's not up to me. We pay by machine.'"

"I was broke, so I wrote out a check on my bank. It came back marked 'Insufficient respect for IBM cards.'"

"You poor guy," I said.

"But that isn't the worst of it. One of the computers got very angry and, instead of canceling my subscription to the Reader's Digest, it multiplied it. I've been getting 10,000 Reader's Digests a month."

"That's a lot of Digests," I said.

"My wife left me because she couldn't stand the scandal, and besides, she was afraid of being thrown out of the Book-of-the-Month Club."

He started crying.

"You're in bad shape," I said. "You better go to the hospital."

"I can't," he cried. "They canceled my Blue Cross, too."

Meeting On Marina

The Marin County Planning Commission tomorrow, meeting jointly with the Mill Valley Planning Commission, will review the proposed development of a marina, motel and convention center, shopping center and apartments on the south shore of Richardson Bay, west of the Richardson Bay Bridge.

The development is proposed by Bothin Real Estate Co. on a 100-acre site. The meeting will be at 8 p.m. in the Civic Center.

An amendment to the Richardson Bay Master Plan and rezoning to commercial and multiple residential from the present agricultural holding zoning are required before the project can proceed.

The land is within a contested annexation to Mill Valley. It is still in county territory.

A woman in West Germany once did a brisk business selling stolen Manhattan phone books to Communist agents for $75 each. Spies use a directory as a coding device by designating specific listings as a key.

Magivac Opens—Built-In Vacuum; Eve's Beauty Studio Announces

The sale and installation of built-in vacuum cleaning systems is a new enterprise of Ray Colberg, 23 Anchorage Court, San Rafael.

Colberg, who is having to give up his position as superintendent of Paramount Roofing Co., Palo Alto because of a back ailment, has taken a franchise for the Magivac division of the John E. Mitchell Co. of Dallas, Texas.

Magivac, a centrally located vacuum unit operated on low voltage, is generally installed in the basement or garage. Individual outlets are placed in walls throughout the house, into which a 20-foot plastic hose is plugged. Power cuts off with the removal of the hose. A filter protects the motor and all dirt drops into a metal container which is emptied periodically. Installation can be made in new houses or already constructed dwellings. Similar equipment is also supplied on the same principal for commercial and industrial use.

A NEW BEAUTY SHOP—Eve's Beauty Studio—has opened at 918 C Street, San Rafael.

Proprietor Eva Porras and her husband Armand have lived in San Rafael about a year. This is her first business venture, though she has been a beauty operator for several years.

Special introductory beauty shop inducements are being offered during the month of July.

Excise Tax Cut Not Stepping Up Buying

By PETER S. NAGAN
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON—Early reports indicate consumers are not rushing out to buy goods on which excise taxes were lowered or cut.

Nevertheless, government officials are still confident that the cuts will give the economy the lift they have been forecasting. They are not dismayed by the lackadaisical response to date.

Retail sales have been doing quite well in recent weeks, running 6 per cent above a year ago. But the buying seems to reflect ordinary demand for goods—needs that would have been filled even if the excises hadn't come down.

This isn't to say that there have been no excise-related spurts. Here and there, customers attribute a particular purchase directly to the tax reductions. But far more often they tell the stores that the cuts had nothing to do with the decisions to buy.

Some consumers don't seem to know that these federal sales taxes have come off. Others say there's no need to hurry, because the goods will still be there, excise free, when wanted.

In some cases, prices have been lowered to reflect the tax changes. Some manufacturers—and some retailers, too—seem to be pocketing the reductions, claiming that they must, to recoup past wage and other cost increases.

It is too early to tell how extensive this pocketing is. Government officials don't think it will be very widespread, though. They expect competition and comparison shopping will force many businesses into line. Nor is the reluctance to rush out to buy considered significant. Few economists expected the tax cuts to work their magic by making selling prices lower and more attractive.

The president's economic advisers have been counting on what they call the income effect. The reduced prices of the many things people ordinarily would buy will leave them with more cash in their pockets—that is, with more of their income unspent.

This would have the same impact of a sudden increase in income. After a pause of a few months—such as that which followed the 1964 tax cut—the extra cash will be spent for a variety of goods and services.

Thus, the experts say it is too early to look for the impact of the excise cuts. They expect it later this summer or in the early fall. And they are convinced that it will help keep the business upturn going.

Tradition Favors Dodgers For Title

By CURT BLOCK
UPI Sports Writer

At least Walter Alston has history on his side.

The way opposing batters have been treating his star-studded pitching staff the Los Angeles Dodger pilot will take any edge he can get.

Baseball theory claims that the team on top of the standings at the conclusion of action July 4 will go on to play in the World Series.

That adage has worked 60 per cent of the time. That is, it's held up 39 times and 26 other years it's been pure bunk —like last season.

The Dodgers had their league - lead trimmed to one slim game yesterday when Houston's Claude Raymond stopped them 3-1 on six hits and second place Cincinnati inched closer with a 4-1 triumph over Philadelphia.

Elsewhere in the National League, St. Louis swept its series with the Mets with a 6-2 win; San Francisco topped Chicago 7-4; and Milwaukee beat Pittsburgh 5-2.

The Fourth of July hypotheses was born during the early years of the century when every July 4 leader from 1900 to 1913 went on to win the pennant. Just as everyone was beginning to believe the theory the Boston Braves shot holes through it by clinching out of the cellar to win the N.L. title in 1914.

In 1964, Baltimore held a three game advantage over New York in the American League and San Francisco was the senior circuit pacesetter with the St. Louis Cardinals mired in fifth place, 10 games out. Both leaders faltered later in the season.

The largest daytime crowd in Houston history — 47,642—saw the Astros push across single tallies in the third, fourth and sixth innings to hand hard luck Claude Osteen his 10th loss in 16 decisions.

Joe Gaines' two-out double scored Raymond in the third, Jim Gilliam's error set up the second Astro run and the final score came while the Dodgers were involved in a baseline rundown in the sixth.

Veteran lefthander Joe Nuxhall fired a five-hitter and Tommy Harper and Pete Rose supplied the offense in Cincinnati's win. A pair of walks delivered by Phillie loser Bo Belinsky in the third preceded the Reds' first hit, a two - run double by Rose. Harper connected for his 10th homer with one on in the fifth. Nuxhall, now 3-2, went the distance and struck out nine.

Frank Bolling's two - run single and Rico Carly's two-run homer backed Milwaukee right-hander Hank Fischer's six - hit hurling that permitted the Braves to halt their losing streak at four. Bob Bailey and Jim Pagliaroni homered for the Pirates.

Jerry Buchek drove in two runs with a single and his first major league home run and Tim McCarver laced four singles as the Cardinals raked four Met pitchers for 14 hits. Righthander Bob Purkey evened his season record at 6-6 although he got help from reliever Don Dennis in the ninth with two away. Galen Cisco, now 1-5, never went past the second inning.

Peacock's 'Buffalo Billy' Wins Western Open

Slimmer Casper Sizzles

Billy Casper, the pride and joy of Peacock Gap Country Club in San Rafael, fired a red-hot closing 64 yesterday to win the Western Open Golf Championship with a four-round total of 270, 14 under par.

It was the second victory of the season for Casper, touring pro from Peacock Gap, who last winter won the Bob Hope Desert Classic at Palm Springs. But he's always in the money. It was his 41st straight money-winning tournament — longest streak of any active player.

The 34-year-old former fat man, who has dropped from 220 pound to 180, shot a seven-under-par 30-34 in the final round yesterday to take home first money of $11,000. The tourney was played at Tam O'Shanter course in Chicago.

Casper's first nine 30-six under par—including an eagle two and five birdies and enabled him to sit in the clubhouse and watch defending champion Juan (Chi Chi) Rodriguez and Jack McGowan finish two strokes behind in a tie for second place.

Rodriguez finished with a 66 for 272. McGowan, the third-round leader with Al Geiberger, had 68 for 272. Geiberger blew to a 73—277 and tied for eighth.

Casper, whose eagle came on the 305-yard No. 5—where he drove and then dropped an eighth-foot putt — licked his weight problem through an all-ergist.

After learning through tests that he is allergic to certain meats, fruits and vegetables Casper dropped from 220 pounds last August and reached his 180 level in April.

"I've licked the problem physically but not mentally," said Casper.

"I'm going to remain in Chicago for another series of tests to determine my minor allergies. They are the ones that cause moods and depressions. This makes me think poorly and when you think poorly, you play poorly."

After nearly every shot he made, especially on No. 5 when he shot the eagle, there came the delighted cry from his third grade son, Billy Jr., of: "that's my daddy."

"It's certainly a big Fourth of July for us," said his wife, Shirley.

Entering the last round, Casper and five others followed front-runners McGowan and Geiberger by two strokes, but as the others fell back, Casper came on strong.

"Just think," said Casper, "I had been a basket case since I was 30 with aches all over and constant head colds. Then the allergist fixed me up. He found I was allergic to apples, oranges, wheat, eggs, pork, lamb, peas, beans, chocolate and beet sugar. Now I eat such things as wild game, turtle steaks and buffalo meat. The guys are starting to call me Buffalo Bill."

"Before today's round, I had breakfast of pheasant and sliced peaches. The other day I had avocado and salmon when I got up."

Rodriguez and McGowan collected checks of $4,950 each. Gene Littler closed fast with a 64 to tie Tony Lema, 69, and Joe Campbell, 68, at 275 for $3,066 each.

Rod Funseth had a 70 for 276 and $2,400. Geiberger shared eighth place with Tommy Aaron, Jerry Steelsmith and amateur Jim Wiechers, the pros collecting $2,050 each.

Casper's round was the best closing round by a tourney winner this year, although two other players, Homero Blancas and Littler also finished with 64's. But Littler finished in a fourth place tie and Blancas dead-locked for 12th.

The win boosted Casper into eighth place in winnings this year with $40,306.

Giant Exec Gives Rundown On History Of The Spitter

Gary Schumacher, whose memory is long but never hazy, writes an interesting and informative letter discussing my recent reference to the spitball.

The Giant public relations tycoon, himself an old time ball writer, was "up and at 'em" when the ban was lowered on the spitter. So while I take a short hike, I'll turn over the space to Mr. Schumacher who gives a nifty and authentic rundown on the fate of the moist ball.

"As I recall it the spitball was banned after the 1919 season (the why for the ban I'll come to in a minute) though it remained a part of major league baseball for another 10 years, and in the minors even longer.

"UNDER THE ban ruling the spitter was barred to all but three pitchers registered by each club. These were to be allowed to throw the spitter until the end of their careers. They were the pitchers who had been throwing the spitter and who had developed it over the previous decade. It was deemed arbitrary and unfair to deprive them of their best pitch. Incidentally, I don't think there were many spitball pitchers before 1910. However, under the ban ruling, no pitchers not on this list of three for each club, was to be allowed to throw the spitter. In other words there was to be no new ones. The limit was set at three as a precautionary measure; otherwise every club would probably have registered all its pitchers, just in case.

"The agitation to abolish the spitter developed out of the fact that the game had gotten a little out of balance. The pitchers, with the spitter and other trick pitches (the "shine" ball, the loaded seams, and scuffed cover; this last done with a metal pin or point concealed somewhere in glove webbing) had begun to dominate the play. Defense was in command. Just about that time, too, Babe Ruth came to the front and the furore he created convinced the magnates that the fans liked the hitting and the long ball. So the clamps were put on the pitchers.

"ACTUALLY, THE spitter was

J. Alou, Bolin Star For Giants

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The San Francisco Giants faced the St. Louis Cardinals today, seeking the charm to let them closer than 2½ games behind league-leading Los Angeles.

The Giants bested Chicago 2-1 in their last series but still couldn't advance on the leaders.

The San Franciscans haven't been nearer than 2½ games to the Dodgers since April 28, and then they were in fifth place.

Jesus Alou rapped four hits, including a pair of triples, and reliever Bob Bolin pitched seven shutout innings, leading San Francisco to a 7-4 victory over the Cubs yesterday.

The win avenged a 4-1 Giant defeat Saturday.

Alou's second triple broke a 4-4 tie in the seventh inning. He drove in Jim Hart, who had doubled with two away.

Tom Haller's single added an insurance run and the Giants padded their lead with another run in the eighth.

Starter Ron Herbel got in a jam in the second inning, but Bolin stepped in and retired 13 men in a row before Ed Bailey led off the seventh with a single.

Willie Mays, bothered by a groin injury, started in left field for the first time in his career. Manager Herman Franks apparently though the action there would be less strenuous than at center. Mays made six putouts to replacement Matty Alou's three.

Mays also singled and scored in the fifth.

In his 14 years as a major leaguer, Mays now has played every defensive position except second base, pitcher and catcher.

The Cubs jumped to a 4-1 lead in the first two innings off Herbel. In the first, Glenn Beckert hit a lead-off double and Don Landrum pounded his fourth homer, driving him home.

Bolin stepped in and allowed only two hits until the Cubs loaded the bases in the ninth with two out. Giant reliever Frank Linzy threw three pitchers, forcing Beckert to ground out for the game's final out.

OFF AND RUNNING — A fleet of graceful sailboats reaches the starting line (left center) as the 24th biennial Transpacific Yacht Race from Los Angeles to Honolulu gets under way yesterday. First finisher should reach the Islands in 10 or 11 days. (AP Wirephoto)

They're Off And Sailing To Hawaii; Marin Boat 3rd

Serena, the 83-foot schooner owned by Ken DeMeuse of the San Francisco Yacht Club in Belvedere, was in third place shortly after the start of the 24th biennial Transpacific Los Angeles to Honolulu yacht race.

John B. Kilroy's aluminum sloop, Kialoa II, led the field of 55 boats as they slipped into thick mists off Santa Catalina Island. Ten minutes behind Kilroy's Newport Harbor (Calif.) Yacht Club entry was the yawl Audacious, trailed by Serena, scratch boat of the fleet.

The 2,225-mile race got underway at noon yesterday with the boom of a cannon sounding outside Los Angeles Harbor. Finishers should start arriving at Diamond Head in 10 or 11 days.

After Serena came the 73-foot ketch Stormvogel and Peter Davis' 66-foot Orient. Trailing the leaders was another SFYC boat, Santana, a 55-foot cutter owned by Wallace H. Nickell.

The overall winner will be determined by calculating the lowest corrected time, on a handicap basis. Officials said that forecasts called for good sailing weather throughout the race and they predicted a new speed record could be set.

There were 37 boats in the race for the first time. In past years the bulk of the field was made up of veterans of the race.

Six foreign entries dotted the field, with two Japanese craft, two from Canada, one from South Africa and one entered by the Italian Navy.

Winner of the last race in 1963 was the 72-foot ketch Ticonderoga, which also was entered in this year's race. The elapsed time in that race was 11 days, 16 hours, 46 minutes and 33 seconds. The overall handicap winner was the Islander, a 40-foot sloop captained by Thomas C. Corkett of Balboa.

Winner's trophies for this year's race will be presented at a special presentation dinner in Honolulu July 21.

CORINTHIAN FOLKBOAT WINS

Bob Oakley, with an able-bodied crew of Hank Easom and Bert Dammer, two fine skippers who decided to "help out" this time, piloted his 25-foot sloop Filur to victory last night in the fifth annual San Francisco July Fourth Folkboat Regatta.

Oakley, a member of the Corinthian Yacht Club of Tiburon, led 24 other rivals from start to finish and scored a 42-second victory over the other boats in the fleet.

Easom is a veteran bay and ocean racing captain, and Dammer is a leading competitor in the IC-33 Class. Together, the trio covered the distance in 1 hour, 11 minutes and 21 seconds. It wasn't the first July 4 victory for the boat. Oakley bought Filur early last year from Herm Zwart, who had sailed her to consecutive victories in the first two years of the event.

West, piloted by Lou Walker, finished second in 1:12:03, with John Werner's Windy third in 1:12:47.

Results:
Filur (Bob Oakley, skipper), 1:11:21 (elapsed time); West (Lou Walker), 1:12:03; Windy (John Werner), 1:12:47; Ingrid (Bill Bindloss), 1:13:25; Together (Roland Richardson), 1:13:43; Ydun (Finn Reinath), 1:14:47; Skaal (Rick Wolff), 1:15:23; Kisa (Frank Dietrich), 1:15:47; Seabelle (Jim Simonds), 1:15:58; Tosenil (Ted Howell), 1:16:08; Debonair (Olive Evert), 1:17:34; Mischief (Gail Knowlton), 1:17:50; Old One (Gordon Waldear), 1:18:33; Barbun (George Kiskadden), 1:18:48; Galante (John Oestreicher), 1:18:53; Alice (Gene Colls), 1:19:53; Cara (Emmet Jones), 1:19:54; Ticker Taype (Dick Kelly), 1:20:51; Aphrodite (Bill Coverdale), 1:25:08; DNF—Blitz (Tom Healy); Kes-

PRESSURE!

Miss Mann Wins U.S. Tourney

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (UPI) — Carol Mann, six-foot-three inch woman pro from Towson, Md., stands out in a crowd but she was "hiding" today after her dramatic victory in the 1965 U.S. Women's Open Golf Championship.

Miss Mann, who said she was "going into hibernation for three days," sank a tension-packed birdie putt on the 18th hole yesterday to capture the title by two strokes at the Atlantic City Country Club.

The 24-year-old pro who knew she needed a par to win, collapsed in tears in the arms of her playing partner, Mary Mills, after the four-foot putt that gave her a 72-hole total of 290 and the $4,000 win over 1956 Open champion Kathy Cornelius of Rancho Santa Fe, Calif.

Mrs. Cornelius, wife of a golf pro, finished shortly before Miss Mann and applied the pressure with a three-under-par 69 final round and a 292 total.

the target because all the other illegal pitches stemmed from it. When a guy threw a shine ball, or another illegal pitch, and was caught at it, he just claimed that he was throwing a spitter. There was no way to control the illegal pitches, and it did work out that way in practice.

"The spitter, of course, is a pitch that breaks sharply downward, and breaks late. When thrown by the good ones, it was a pitch very hard to hit. Most of the pitchers who threw the spitter increased the saliva weight and content by chewing emery, though others were satisfied with chewing tobacco juice, when judiciously applied, had a double quality. It settled into the seams of the ball, and thus "loaded" the ball on one side, which it caused it to break more sharply. In practice the pitchers often got a lot of help from the tobacco chewing infielders. One of them would spit into his glove, and when the ball was thrown around the infield between putouts, he would give it a good dunking.

"THE BASIC theory of the spitter is that it gets its break because the ball doesn't rotate or spin as would an ordinary fast ball or curve. The grip gives the rotation, of course. The fast ball rotates on an upward, and the curve breaks downward. The spitter, held with a light grip, but thrown like any other pitch, would slide from the finger tips, thus devoid of the rotation the tight fast ball or curve ball grip would apply. Sailing up to the plate, the ball would be effected by the weight of the spit at the top of the ball, and thus cause it to drop. Air resistance figures in this too, though the dynamics involved are a little beyond my ken.

"Apparently, the spitter wasn't hard to master, and it didn't seem to be wearing on the arm. From 1915 through 1926 or 1927, there were a lot of good ones, and they lasted a long time. Burleigh Grimes went well into the 1930's, and "Red" Faber also got by well with the spitter until he was a greybeard.

"BURLEIGH GRIMES was probably the best of the National Leaguers, though there were a dozen good ones. Clarence Mitchell pitched out here in the Coast League in his late years) was a winner with it for a long time, and Leon Cardore also threw a pretty good one. Among the earlier American League practitioners were a couple of very, very good ones — Urban Shocker of the Browns, and Eddie Cicotte.

"Possibly, the best of all of them was Frank Shellenback, though he never got the chance to throw it in the majors. When the rule was instituted he was a rookie, and they passed him over to register three others—Cicotte, "Red" Faber, and I think Dave Danforth though I could be wrong about this last.

"IN ANY case, Shellenback wasn't allowed to throw the spitter in the majors and without it he was a very ordinary pitcher. But with it he was invincible. He came out to the Coast League, as you know, and won more than 350 games. There was something of a campaign to get Frank reinstated as a major leaguer, on the ground that the failure to register him originally was an oversight, but Judge Landis, while properly sympathetic, ruled that he couldn't make the exception for one pitcher. There was nothing else he could do.

"RIGHT NOW there isn't too much agitation to get the spitter restored. Actually, we've come into another pitching cycle. With the knuckle ball, screw ball, slider and other technique developments, the pitchers have a pretty solid grip on what happens on the field. The boys still whack the homers, but runs as such are getting to be hard to come by. Low scores are the expanding rule in both major leagues; the pitchers are in command, and it seems to be the thinking that they need not be granted further advantages.

"Sincerely,
Garry Schumacker."

Snead Wins, Thanks To Spectator

FORMBY, England (AP) — Sammy Snead is still the World Senior Golf champion today but he needed a conveniently located spectator to retain his title.

Snead, 53, defeated Britain's Charlie Ward 1-up for the Senior crown yesterday in a match that went 37 holes — the first overtime in the 11-year history of the Seniors.

Ward and Snead, who played in Ryder Cup competition 16 years ago, joshed each other through the early part of the final round but the kidding stopped when Ward rallied and wiped out a three stroke Snead margin in the late stages.

Ward was still 1-down going into the 18th hole but evened the match when Snead was bunkered.

On the 427-yard par four first hole — 37th of the match — Ward got stuck in the rough and needed three strokes to reach the side of the green. Snead's second shot on the playoff hole headed straight for a bunker but hit a spectator and took a good bounce for the White Sulphur Springs, W.Va., pro, leaving him with an easy chip for his four and the victory.

Skate Board Winners

George Ballas, Craig Saunders and Anita Anderson won skate board competition at Peacock Gap Country Club in San Rafael yesterday.

RUSS LOOM AS FUTURE WORLD TENNIS THREAT

WIMBLEDON (UPI) — If the Wimbledon results indicate a trend, Australia will defend its Davis Cup crown this year with ease but faces a definite threat in the near future — from Russia, not the United States.

Margaret Smith completed the Aussies' sweep of the singles titles Saturday, beating defending women's champion Mario Bueno of Brazil 6-4, 7-5 after Roy Emerson successfully defended his men's crown Friday by whipping fellow Australian Fred Stolle in straight sets.

Russia, however, which has an intensive program under way to become a leading tennis power, captured both junior events with impressive performances, while the best the U. S. could do was a victory in the veterans event and a share of the woman's doubles title.

The significance of the youthful Russians' triumphs compared to the American inability to score heavily did not go unnoticed. Particularly impressive was Vladimir Korotkov, who beat highly regarded French junior George Coven 6-2, 3-6, 6-3, for the men's title and Olga Morozova, who beat Rachel Giscafre of Argentina 6-3, 6-3, for the junior girls crown.

Bill Talbert of New York and Gardnar Mulloy of Miami won the veterans doubles title by downing Al Martini and George McCall of Los Angeles 6-3, 6-1.

FIGHT AFTERMATH Phils Give Thomas His Walking Papers

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Frank Thomas discovered an old axiom of life this July 4th weekend — it's not always what you do that counts, but who you do it to.

As a result, Thomas is sitting with his bags packed today waiting to see what National League team can use a veteran pinch-hitter and utility infielder-outfielder.

The 36-year-old Thomas and 23-year-old Richie Allen, the Philadelphia Phillies' All-Star third baseman, traded blows Saturday night during pre-game batting practice. Allen hit teammate Thomas in the chest with his fist. Thomas whacked Allen on his shoulder with a bat.

Although neither Manager Gene Mauch nor General Manager John Quinn would say so, 36-year-old utility men, regardless of the reason, just don't get away with slamming 23-year-old potential super-stars such as Allen with a bat.

Allen, the 1964 National League rookie of the year is leading the league with a .336 average. Thomas has batted only three times since June 15.

Quinn said he had been trying to deal Thomas since early last month. He said he knows posi-

U.S. Trackmen Hold Big Edge Over Russ

MOSCOW (AP) — Results of the major American and Soviet warmup track meets for the coming clash of the two countries indicate that the U.S. men will field the stronger squad.

The Americans trounced the Soviet men at Los Angeles last year 139-97. Now a comparison of a dozen events shows American superiority in 10 in this year's results.

The Soviet women have traditionally dominated the feminine side of the annual Soviet-American track competitions. Last year the Russian women won 59-48.

The meet this year will be in Kiev, capital of the Ukrainian region of the Soviet Union, on July 31 and August 1.

The main preparatory Soviet meet for selection of a team was held Saturday and Sunday in Minsk. The weekend before, the Amateur Athletic Union championships in San Diego was the showcase for the American team.

The two events in which the Russians looked stronger were the javelin and high jump.

Janis Lusis of the Soviet Union hurled the javelin 280-11 yesterday, claiming the best result so far this year anywhere, and Viktor Bolshov cleared the high-jump bar at 7-2.

In San Diego, Bill Floorke won with a javelin toss of 258-7 and Otis Burrell leaped 7 feet. But the story was different in other events.

The Soviet's Genady Kondrashov hurled the hammer 223-9 compared with 232-1 by Harold Connolly and 224-5 by Ed Burke.

Viktor Lipsnis put the shot 60-11½ while John McGrath registered 63 feet.

Vladimir Trusenev tossed the discus 188-5½ but Jay Silvester stretched it to 202-7.

America's John Pannel pole vaulted 17 feet compared with 15½ by Nikolai Keidan — a height that two other Americans also topped in San Diego.

Ralph Boston did 26-3½ in the broad jump and Darrell Horn went 25-5½ compared with 25-5¼ by Igor Ter-Ovanesyan.

In the 800-meter race, American Morgan Groth clocked 1 minute, 47.7 seconds, compared with 1:49.3 by Valery Bulyshev.

At 400 meters, Ollan Cassell was timed in 46.1 seconds at San Diego and Vadim Arhipchuk posted the best Soviet time of 47.5.

Jim Grelle and Dyrrol Burleson of the United States both ran the 1,500 meters under 3 minutes, 42 seconds in Helsinki last week, after the event was unscheduled in San Diego. The best Soviet time was 3:44.8 by Oleg Raiko.

At San Diego Bob Schul ran the equivalent of a 13-minute, 36-second 5,000 meters, compared with 13:52 by Nikolai Dutov at Kiev.

Soviet 10,000 meter times were slow, with Leonid Ivanov best at 28:49.0, compared with the world record 27:11.6 time posted by Billy Mills and Gerry Lindgren for the six-mile distance.

FOYT SCORES 'PERSONAL COMEBACK' VICTORY

By DUKE FERGUSON DAYTON BEACH, Fla. (AP) — A. J. Foyt, seriously injured in a racing mishap last January, turned the Firecracker 400 National Stock Car Race into his personal comeback stage, fighting off a major darkhorse bid and saving some prestige for the favored Fords.

Foyt, winner of the Indianapolis 500 and the Firecracker 400 last year, finished — and won — his first race of the season yesterday averaging 150.040 miles per hour over the 2.5 mile high-banked Daytona International speedway.

The Houston, Tex., driver, who spent 45 days in the hospital and several months recuperating after his Jan. 16 accident at Riverside, Calif., collected $12,600 first prize money.

The dark horse was Buddy Baker of Charlotte, N.C., driving a Plymouth Fury. The Chrysler engine was sanctioned for racing on Nascar tracks only two weeks ago. No one figured that the privately entered car had a chance against the strong Ford factory team.

However, Baker, driving under the colors of his father, Buck Baker, finished second, just under the one lap behind the leader.

Ford factory cars — the acknowledged favorites — almost didn't finish the race. If it hadn't been for Foyt, the factory cars would have been shut out of the top seven finishers — something that hasn't happened on the Nascar circuit in 28 races this season.

The factory Fords were plagued by trouble with a new type connecting rod. Ford engineers said the rod caps broke when drivers exceeded recommended limits.

Only 14 cars of the 39 starters were running when the checkered flag fell. Of those, only Foyt and Baker completed the 160 laps for 400 miles.

Eight were retired in wrecks and 17 dropped out because of engine trouble. Heat on the track was measured as high as 137 degrees.

"I didn't push it any harder than I had to," Foyt said. He said his car was geared a little higher than the other factory Fords, which probably was the reason he lasted the distance.

"I was out there turning 7,000 revs," he said, "and some of the other boys passing me must have been doing 8,000 or more." This is what blew their engines, he said.

G. C. Spencer of Inman, S. C., finished third in a 1964 Ford. He was followed by J. T. Putney of Arden, N.C., in a 1965 Chevrolet and Neil Castles of Charlotte, N.C., in a 1964 Dodge.

Marinite Second In Hard Top Racing

Bob Buell of San Rafael finished second in the semi-main Saturday at the Petaluma Fairgrounds. Jim Rodgers of Nicasio was another Marin driver among the top finishers, winning third place in the fourth heat.

Sniper Slays Policeman In Hawaii

HONOLULU (AP)—A shy, soft-spoken youth trapped in dense underbrush near a lookout point in the mountains behind Honolulu is charged with first-degree murder in the sniper slaying of a policeman and accused of wounding three bus-riding tourists from a perch on a ridge.

He is Michael Patrick Moeller, 23, a television repairman released from Hawaii's mental hospital four months ago. He had been committed after his indictment by a grand jury in connection with a sniping incident last December in which one person was wounded.

Saturday a tour bus carrying 45 passengers was fired on as it made a hairpin turn in mountainous country.

Mrs. Peter Montoya, 51, of Denver, Colo., was wounded in the abdomen. Her husband, also 51, suffered a thigh wound. He said he believed he was hit by the bullet that passed through his wife's body.

Forty minutes later a bus carrying 31 was shot at. This time the victim was Edith Hendrick, 65, of South Weymouth, Mass., wounded in a leg.

Soon at least 100 policemen had converged at the scene, a sharp curve in the highway.

As they worked upward through brush and trees more shots rang out and Patrolman Bradley Kaanana, 25, fell with bullet wounds in his chest and his left leg. He lived 40 minutes.

As the police pressed on, Moeller rose from the brush waving a rifle to which he had tied his white T-shirt as a surrender flag.

SHOCKING FASHION news is being made in New York where American designers have come up with the full length cover-up with next to nothing revealed in contrast to the past year's nudity, now decreed "demode." At left is an at-home gown by Tiffreau and Busch, in velvet with raglan sleeves, high neck, mask and flowered veiled headpiece; at center a thigh-high creation by Rudi Gernreich, who started the topless suit style, featuring a wrap-around scarf and headpiece. At right is a silk dress by Adele Simpson with lace ruffles and black lace boots. Mysterious modesty, veiled and masked, is the Covered Girl look for fall.

THE FALL WRAP-UP

Designers Put Her In Purdah, Mystery

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Fashion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Fashion-conscious women might as well forget about those hip-swinging, bosom-heaving, shank-revealing techniques used to set off last season's brazenly bare styles.

Now they will need to learn how to put prettily, flirt coyly, withdraw from view mysteriously, and blush furiously.

THESE ARE THE new moods needed to complement the new age of innocence, the new wave of modesty, the new old-fashionedness in the new styles to be previewed by the Nation's press July 7-16.

The American Designer Series, a four-day program of fall collections arranged by Eleanor Lambert, begins Wednesday and continues through Saturday. The New York Couture Group's semi-annual press week activities begin next Sunday and continue through the following Friday.

EPITOMIZING THE new age of innocence is the baby girl look, which calls for a pretty pout. French designer Andres Courreges initiated it years ago with the high hemlines, chest-high waistlines, puffed sleeves, boots and bonnets which tie under the lip.

Today many American designers have joined the baby cult either copying Courreges or creating their own version of the grown-up toddler designs. Contributions include smocks, ruffled pinafores, Peter Pan collars, round-toed Mary Jane shoes and T-strap sandals, hip bows, and longer hair styles that defy vision.

Designers Jacques Tiffreau and Rudi Gernreich combine the baby doll look with their enthusiasm for the purdah. Both like the mysterious modesty of a woman without a face, or at least one who hides it behind veils, masks, hoods, sacks or giant collars.

Gaston Berthelot, designer for the New York house of Christian Dior, is less avant garde, although he too advocates the re-birth of fans or masks as handy devices for coy flirtation.

IN ANY EVENT, the fall fashion plate must remember to blush furiously in anything less modest than a turtle neck—for decolletee is demode. The new mode keeps all flesh under wraps. Even shockingly short skirts are merely aprons worn over woolly, body-enveloping tights.

The covered girl will remain in vogue for some time, according to designer Luis Estevez.

Bolinas Pipe Plan Gaining

The Bolinas Public Utility District Friday night tentatively approved the construction of a mile long water transmission pipe.

The pipe would cost approximately $20,000 and would be used as a supplement to the present pipe. "This new one would be available in case the present one should go bad," reported district chairman, Sherman R. Smith.

The pipe will start at the rain water tanks in Bolinas, on Terrace Avenue, extend down Marin Avenue, and connect to water tanks at the foot of Terrace Avenue. Construction is expected to start after bids are in next month.

Bids Too High In Mill Valley

Two sets of bids were opened by the City of Mill Valley last week, both higher than the estimates.

Bids for phase one of redevelopment of Old Mill Park were considered too high and referred back to the city parks and recreation commission. Estimate for the project by landscape architects Royston, Hanamoto, Mayes and Beck, was $22,000. Bids were $29,929 by Collishaw Sprinkler Co. Inc., Santa Clara; $35,062 by A. and J. Shooter Inc. of Marin, San Rafael, and $36,700 by Watkin and Sibbald Associates Inc., San Anselmo.

The library board expects to recommend to city council at its meeting tomorrow awarding a contract to low bidder A. and J. Shooter Inc. for landscaping at the new public library at $19,466. Estimate for this job was $17,500. There was one other bid, $24,000 by Cagwin and Dorward, San Rafael.

Two popes were named Damascus.

Point Reyes Power Is Out

A fallen power line in Point Reyes station caused a four hour black out along the Point Reyes peninsula Friday night.

Pacific Gas and Electric Co. district manager George M. Henderson was unable to say why the line fell. The failure affected some 600 users.

The wire went down at 10 p.m. and power was restored for all but 20 persons, in the immediate vicinity of the line, by 1 a.m. The wire was repaired by 2 a.m.

Balloon Post

Cards Return

Thirteen more San Rafael youngsters have received post cards which they sent aloft in balloons from San Rafael parks Tuesday.

The balloon from the most distant and exotic location was postmarked Napa.

The postcards were attached to helium filled balloons for the San Rafael Recreation Department and Chamber of Commerce sponsored "Operation Blastoff."

The child whose balloon sails furthest gets a prize.

Department Heads' Pay On Agenda

Such an ordinance has been adopted by the county and several other cities.

Holland, of 320 Glen Park Avenue, San Rafael, and Mikol, San Anselmo construction worker, were arrested by San Anselmo police who quoted bartender at the Knott Inn, 30 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, as saying the pair battled them with fists and a knife.

The contractors said they thought the fee would be waived because it was for construction of a city building. The board, which serves some unincorporated areas as well as most of the City of San Rafael, decided it could not waive its regulation.

Brown originally had proposed a $325 million annual increase in taxes but, after the new revenue figures were presented, he pared the request to merely a five-cent increase in the cigarette tax.

Unruh and Petris preached the property tax reform sermon so long they left themselves no position of retreat. In the final days, when the Senate approved a $143 million tax plan—boosting cigarette taxes six cents and extending the sales tax—the Assembly leadership dumped it.

*PG&E energy
was a bargain.
30 years ago...*

but PG&E rates are even lower today!

Your PG&E bill is bigger than it used to be because you're using more light, more heat and more appliances. PG&E rates, however, have gone down. The same amount of gas and electricity costs less today than it did in 1935. PG&E energy is still your biggest household bargain.
